Getting Things Into Shape.

The Old Home Picnic and Fair committees are rapidly getting things into shape and the interest is growing from week to week. The present indication is that the enterprise will be a success in every way.

The executive committee held a meeting Saturday in the office of Col. Ford, pursuant to adjournment on Saturday preceding, and completed the premium list and apportioned the cash premiums thereto.

It was decided that all entries of live stock be made with the committee on exhibits not later than October 6, 1904, and that other exhibits must be brought in not later than 6 o'clock p. m. October 12.

The following committee of six was appointed to help receive and arrange exhibits: Miss Laura Johnson, Miss Mary Price, Miss Mattie Jennings, Lee Gibson, A. F. Farrar, S. R. Jennings.

A committee of three ladies was appointed to take charge of music, as follows:

Mrs. D. F. McConkey, October 12
Mrs. L. V. Flowers, " 13
G. R. McFarland, " 14

The committee adjourned to meet on Saturday, September 10, to transact further business to forward the interests of the picnic and fair.

Another Swindle.

According to reports received by the agricultural department of the university of Missouri a new swindle is now being successfully worked in various Missouri towns by the so-called "creamery promoter," whose business it is to organize a co-operative creamery company among the farmers surrounding a town and sell the organization a $2,000 outfit for about $4,000. A smooth individual appears in the town where it is proposed to victimize the farmers, takes rooms at the best hotel and begins to talk "creamery." He is always supplied with the most convincing statistics, either counterfeited or gathered from localities peculiarly adapted to the business. In two weeks a meeting is called by influential farmers and the plot from this point moves rapidly to completion. The "promoter" moves on to new fields; the creamery runs a few months and then closes a financial failure. At Cassville, the county seat of Barry county, the "promoter" had things going his way when some cautious person decided to investigate a little before putting up the money. Accordingly he wrote to the agricultural department of the university asking for expert advice. R. M. Washburn of the dairy farm was detailed to investigate. He found the community just on the point of paying $3,800 for a $2,000 plant when even at the smaller figure there was considerable doubt about the financial success of the enterprise with the number of cows in the vicinity of Cassville and the non-adaptability of the surrounding country to the dairy business. Cassville, the Missouri university authorities say, is but one of a number of Missouri towns that these "promoters" have selected for their swindling scheme. Be on the lookout for them.

Burn Your Hogs.

The law in regard to the disposal of hogs dying of contagious diseases is rigorous, as it should be, requiring that the owner shall bury not less than two feet deep or burn the carcasses within 24 hours. Should he fail to do so it is the duty of the constable, on the complaint of any citizen, to so dispose of such carcasses at the owner's cost, and the owner is subject to a fine ranging from $10 to $50 on conviction of failure to comply with the law.

THE TANEY COUNTY

OLD HOME PICNIC AND FAIR

THIS EVENT will afford a delightful opportunity to combine pleasure with profit in a manner which will never be forgotten, at a time of year when the fruits of the season's labors have been garnered and a bit of rest and recreation has been earned by all who have earnestly labored with brain or brawn to advance the general welfare. Remember the dates,

October 12, 13, 14, 1904

and be on hands with the whole family, together with any former residents you can induce to be present. The committees are doing everything in their power to make the occasion a success from every point of view, and have reason to expect the hearty co-operation of every citizen who takes pride in his county. One very good way to do this is to bring out something to show in the "Fair" department, to stimulate interest in which the committee on exhibits has prepared the following carefully arranged
